Dear Curtice:

Just a short note to thank you for taking the time to attend our meeting on Saturday, October 27, 2007. Your attendance and your contributions to our discussions reflect well on you and our union.

As your President I want you to know that I very much appreciate your support in our joint efforts to make our union even better than it is now. I need and I seek your advice and help.

If you have any further thoughts or suggestions, please let me know. We are all here to serve in my continued efforts to make our local leadership the moving force in our union.

Again, please accept my thanks and best regards.

Sincerely,

Eddie L. Parks
President
